FINAL ARRANGEMENTS Making For the Burial of General Logan.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Logan received this morning a long telegram signed officially by the city clerk of Chicago embodying resolutions adopted by the city council. The council formally requests that the burial place of the dead statesman be selected in the city upon which he conferred so much honor, in a site to be dedicated by the city to that purpose. The council appointed a committee to confer with committees of civic and military organizations in regard to selecting the place of burial, and make arrangements for the reception and interment of the remains. As announced informally last night decision is practically reached to have the funeral services in the senate chamber next Friday, and then convey the remains to Chicago. Few details of arrangements have as yet been determined upon.

The senate committee acting through the sergeant-at-arms will have immediate charge of the remains.

Col. Kennedy announces by request of Mrs. Logan that General Sheridan will be in charge of the procession which will escort the remains from Calumet place to the capital.

Following is the committee appointed by Senator Sherman to take charge of the remains of Senator Logan: Senators Cullom, Stanford, Cockrell, Allison, Beck, Sewell, Voorhees, Hampton and Manderson.

Formal announcement of the arrangement and completion of details awaits and depends upon the definite selection by the Chicago people of a suitable spot for the tomb. Mrs. Logan expressed the wish that the place be one which will never suffer from the encroachments of commerce and population. She refers to the site of the Douglass monument which, when selected, was remote from population, but is now surrounded by steam railroads and dwelling houses, as an example of a site she wishes to avoid. A suitable spot, she thinks, will be found near the entrance to South Park.

Honored by the City He Honored. Chicago, Ill., Dec. 28.—Mayor Harrison sent a communication to the city council last night requesting that body to pass resolutions asking the family of Gen. Logan to allow the dead general to be interred in Chicago. Resolutions to that effect were adopted by a rising vote. The West Park board yesterday took action looking to the erection of a monument to Gen. Logan at the entrance to the park. A site overlooking the boulevard has been tendered by the South Park commissioners for the general's grave.

The secretary of the South Park commissioners said today there would be no meeting of the board to take action on the proposed grant of site in Chicago for the burial of Gen. Logan's body. The board after consulting with Mr. Fuller, decided to send the following telegram to Washington:

Our attorney, Mr. Fuller, advises the Park commissioners that they cannot, under their charter, tender a place of burial, but the legislature might pass an act authorizing such use. This probably can be secured. Thus advised the commissioners cannot make a formal tender. They are of the opinion, however, the monument should be erected at the head of Grand Boulevard, and 350th street, and the name changed to Logan Boulevard. Mrs. Logan would doubtless have assurance by deed of dedication that the burial place be forever reserved. You will see Mr. Fuller's opinion prevents the commissioners, under existing law from making assurance, however cordial their individual wishes might be.

The city council and citizens' committee will hold a joint session this afternoon, when definite action as to a site is expected to be taken.

Condolence. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—Col. Jerome B. Burke, commanding the department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic, issued an order in which he says: "He was among the very earliest in the work of organizing the Grand Army of the Republic, and to him, as much as to any other man is due the credit of attaining the proud position which our order holds to day throughout the country. Resting confidence in him, he was again and again elected commander-in-chief, and at no time have commands lost confidence in him. He has been true to us and our interests always. Honest, loyal, brave and patriotic, his memory will never fade from the minds of those who loved and respected him so long. This department tenders to his loving wife and family its deepest sympathy in their bereavement, with the assurance that his patriotic deeds and illustrious services both in the field and in the halls of congress will be sacredly cherished by his late comrades in arms." The usual emblem of respect were ordered.

Among hundreds of messages of condolence sent Mrs. Logan is the following: WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.

DEAR MADAM—The Military Order,

Loyal Legion, of the United States, desires me to express to you its sincere sympathy and condolence in your great trouble.

In the death of your illustrious husband Loyal Legion has lost one of its most distinguished soldiers and highly esteemed companions. Very respectfully,

PHIL SHERIDAN, Lieutenant General, Commander-in-Chief, M. O. L. U. S.

A Logan Fund. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—Captain George F. Lemmon, of the National Tribune, this morning started a subscription fund for the benefit of Mrs. Logan with $1,000, and sent invitations to hundreds of Gen. Logan's friends and admirers throughout the country, asking them to contribute. The Western Union Telegraph company tendered the free use of its wires for transmitting subscriptions. Responses are now coming rapidly, and $1,000 subscriptions have been received from Senator Sawyer, Hon. Wm. Walker Phelps, John B. Drake, of Chicago, Gov. Alger, of Michigan, Geo. W. Pullman, and others, and the receipts in five hours from the time the subscription was started amounted to $10,000. All persons desiring to contribute should telegraph George E. Lemmon, Citizens National Bank, Washington, D. C., stating the amount of their subscription, and send checks or drafts at once to the order of J. A. J. Creswell, president Citizens National Bank, Washington, D. C.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 28.—A special to the Evening Wisconsin from Oakbrook says Senator Sawyer telegraphed to the Logan fund committee at Washington that he will subscribe $1,000.

SHERMAN, Tex., Dec. 28.—Colonel O. S. Lyons, deputy commander of Texas, G. A. R., has issued a general order announcing the death of General Logan and appointing a committee of eighteen post commanders throughout Texas to attend the funeral.

A Pension for the Widow. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The Evening Star says: Among members of the house who visited the capital yesterday and today, the suggestion was passed around that a liberal pension should be granted to the widow of Gen. Logan, and it met with hearty approval on every side. Democrats manifested as much eagerness. Republicans to join in providing for the widow. The hearty manner in which the suggestion has been taken hold of makes it certain that among the first acts of congress after assembling will be to pass a pension bill for Mrs. Logan. It is agreed that there would be no objection to granting a liberal pension based upon General Logan's military services. Some members are of the opinion that the pension should be $5,000 per year, the sum granted to widows of senators, and though General Logan did not occupy an office so exalted as that, he was the recognized head representative of the volunteer soldier. It is hardly probable that a pension of more than $2,500 will be made if the expressions of congressmen on that subject may be taken as a criterion with regard to the pension, as there is no civil pension to be appropriated for the relief of Mrs. Logan. They consider only the military services of her husband, and it is claimed that no violence would be done to the spirit of the law in granting her a pension as General Logan was a sufferer to his death from the effects of his army experience; in fact it is asserted that the rheumatism which was the primary cause of his death, was contracted by exposure in the army.

Capital Excerpts. WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The house funeral committee has not been made up. A list of members now in the city was sent to Mrs. Logan for her to select from; it has not yet been returned to the speaker. As soon as the list is returned he will make a formal announcement of the committee.

The chairmanship of the committee on military affairs which Gen. Logan has held for years will probably go to Senator Sewell.

During the afternoon telegrams were received from Chicago throwing something of doubt on the arrangement supposed to have been already practically concluded for the funeral. The commissioners telegraphed that after consultation with their attorney they were reluctantly led to the decision that they lacked authority to set apart a place for the burial in the public park, but that authority they say will be granted by the legislature, which convenes next week. In the meantime the citizens' committee of Chicago suggested other arrangements which could be perfected without delay.

Upon receipt of the many telegrams it was decided that the funeral will take place in the senate chamber next Friday and the remains will be placed in a vault at Oak Hill cemetery here until the place of final burial is determined.

Unless, Then. BOSTON, Dec. 28.—The employees of the consolidated railroads, consisting of the Highland and Middlesex street railway companies, held a secret meeting which convened last night and lasted until 6 o'clock this morning to consider grievances and to arrange to present a plan for a strike. The following resolution was passed: "We will give the company until January 1 to fulfill its agreement, and unless it lives up to its agreement, the next time we meet here it will be to tip the road."

In His Own Behalf. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 28.—In the trial of Rev. Waldo Massour, charged by Mrs. Coulston with criminal assault, defendant testified in his own behalf today. He declared that it was a case of conspiracy and emphatically denied the allegation of assault.

A Pretty Good Showing. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—The twelfth annual meeting of the Northwestern Traveling men's Association was held here today. The report of the secretary showed a membership of 3,882. The total amount paid beneficiaries since the date of its organization is $166,000. During the year 23 deaths occurred.

Killed His Prisoner. KENTON, Ohio, Dec. 28.—Marshall Hane of Forest, Ohio, shot and killed Charles Tardion whom he was taking under arrest from Tiffin yesterday. Tardion attempted to escape and attacked Hane with a knife, when the latter fired and killed his prisoner.

Well, What of It? NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Governor Hill denies the statement widely circulated yesterday that he was about to visit Washington where he will be the guest of President Cleveland.

THE DIPLOMAT DIVULGES. Wheelock Makes Clean Breast of the Celebrated Robbery.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 28.—When the train on the Rock Island, arriving here at 8:35 p. m., came into the Union depot last night five men alighted, and keeping close together hurried away up street and were soon lost sight of. No particular attention was paid to them as there was nothing in their appearance or conduct that would attract notice or comment, but some one standing on the platform who saw the party remarked that one of them looked like Fred Wheelock. This was enough to excite the reporter's curiosity, and so a representative of the Times undertook to locate the quintette. No trace of the party of strangers could be found.

Suddenly it occurred to him to shadow the Wheelock residence on Miami street, between Second and Third, and so, after being reinforced by another employee of the paper, the two went to a place across the street from the home of the Wheelocks, where they took a stand and surveyed the surroundings. All was quiet in the yard and about the house; the blinds were drawn and closed and there was no evidence that anyone was on the inside, except the faint glimmer of a lamp where the light shined through one of the half parted curtains.

[NOTE.—Wheelock's confession as related by Robt. Pinkerton to the Times reporter was received too late (4:15 a. m.) for publication in this issue—will give it tomorrow.—TEL. ED.]

RELATIVE TO THE ROBBERY.

Pinkerton's Efforts the Finest Ever Seen.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 28.—Col. L. C. Weir, superintendent of the Adams' Express company, who had immediate charge of the search for the men who robbed the car near St. Louis on October 25, returned today from Chicago where he had the pleasure of seeing his plans perfected. His instructions to the detectives were to find the robbers and not temporize with a view of recovering the money. He says he directed Pinkerton to spare no money on the search and he pronounced their effort the finest ever seen of this kind, having been called to the assistance of other companies in like cases. He declines to speak as to whether the men are taken to St. Louis and further investigation made.

The Diplomat a Debtor.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Fred Wheelock who was arrested by the Pinkertons in connection with the express robbery, in which he is alleged to have figured as "Jim Cummings," was in the coal business on West Lake street. He appears to have been in debt. Mr. John Murray, a coal dealer, began an attachment today in the superior court against him for an unpaid account of $472.

Planned in Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 28.—The details of the express robbery as published this morning have created much comment here. Every party yet implicated in it is a former resident of Leavenworth. Weaver, Cook, Wheelock and Haight were schoolboys here together. As they grew up they became wild and reckless and were always chased as rough characters. They were all here last summer and it is believed that the robbery was planned in Leavenworth.

The Famous Andover Trial.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 28, 10 a. m.—The now famous Andover trial has begun at the United States hotel in this city. Present, full board of visitors, complainants, residents and counsel on both sides. The large dining room of the hotel was filled, even standing room along the sides being occupied. A considerable portion of the audience was made up of clergymen, many laymen and a number of ladies were present. The large audience paid the closest attention from the opening to the closing of the long session. Judge French offered in evidence an editorial article from the Andover Review for April last, entitled "Bible Theme for the Pulpit" and Prof. Smyth's speech at the American board meeting at Des Moines, Ia., last October. He said the speech was being printed in pamphlet entitled "Great Debate."

Counsel for respondents asked whatever portion of any book or document was to be urged against them should be definitely pointed out. On this point Governor Gaston, one of the respondents' counsel, said: "Prof. Smyth is willing not only that this tribunal shall know, but that the world shall know all he said and all he has taught, and all he believes; but in the trial against him it is but fair and just that the legal charge against him be specified."

At 11 o'clock complainants having rested their case without having offered any other evidence than that specified above and citations from the Andover Review and a book made up mainly of replications from editorials in the Review and entitled "Progressive Orthodoxy," as specified in the charges. Prof. Theodore Dwight, of Columbia law school, opened for the respondents in an address of great length, learning and vigorous eloquence. Prof. Dwight was still speaking when the hearing was adjourned until 2 p. m.

CAPITAL BUDGET.

THE PRESIDENT BETTER. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—President Cleveland was much better this morning and expected he would be able to take a carriage ride this afternoon.

Col. Lamont this morning sent the following message to the members of the cabinet: The president is feeling better this morning, but there being no business calling for immediate attention, he directs me to say there will be no cabinet meeting today.

The president and Mrs. Cleveland rode out to Oakview this afternoon and after a stay of a few minutes returned to the white house. The ride proved beneficial to the president and today he is feeling well and his condition is steadily improving.

CULLINGS. The celebrations of the Central and East Washington Christmas clubs were held today and the philanthropic efforts of the committees were so worked, with perfect success that happiness was bestowed upon nearly fifteen hundred children, and the festivities were entered upon by benefactors and beneficiaries. The celebrations compared in all respects with those of preceding years.

CALL FOR BONDS. The secretary of the treasury this afternoon issued the 145 call for the redemption of bonds. The call is for $10,000,000 of the 3 per cent loan of 1881. The bonds below designated will be paid on February 1st, 1887, and interest will cease on that day. Three per cent bonds numbered as follows: $50 original number 1 to original number 48, both inclusive; $100 original number 53 to 609, both inclusive; and original 1940 to original 1999, both inclusive; $500 original number 246 to 266 and 4230 to 4234, both inclusive; $1,000 original 3017 to 2175, and number 23,749 to 23,777, both inclusive; $10,000 original 5316 to 6352, both inclusive; total, $1,000,000. Three months interest due February 1, 1887, in the above described will not be paid by checks forwarded to holders of the bonds but will be paid with the principal to the holders at the time of presentation. Parties holding bonds called can obtain immediate payment with interest to date of presentation by requesting the cashier in the letter forwarding the bonds for redemption.

Prosperous Outlook South.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 28.—The Tradesman has received extensive reports from all the iron and steel plants in the south, embracing the states of Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia. These reports disclose a most remarkable development in the iron industry in the south since the census of 1880. The total shows a gain in six years of 563,200 tons. The rate of gain of capacity in Alabama, Tennessee and Georgia, the three central iron states, the south, was 533 per cent, since 1880. The Tradesman says: At the same rate of gain they will have at the next census nearly one and one-half million tons annual capacity, but the indications point to a capacity of two million tons annually at that time. In the production of stoves the progress has been equally as great. The production of cast iron pipe in the south has quadrupled since 1880. The Tradesman's reports indicate a more prosperous outlook for the south in 1887 than in the past, with all signs pointing clearly to the fact that the south will greatly increase its industrial importance in iron and steel in the next two years, and the production of raw and merchantable iron will be trebled before 1890.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 28.—In its annual review of the industrial progress of the south the Baltimore Record in this week's issue says that 1887 has been the most remarkable year in many respects in the history of the southern states, and more has been accomplished for the progress and prosperity of the whole south than ever before in any year. This is shown in the four years' advancement of capital in industrial enterprises. One of the most gratifying features in southern industrial progress, says the Record, is the wide diversity of new industries that are developing all through that section.

The Wabash Receivership.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 28.—Col. W. H. Blodgett, general solicitor of the Wabash railroad, presented to the United States circuit court today, the order recently made by Judge Gresham at Chicago, appointing Judge Cooley receiver of certain lines of the Wabash system east of the Mississippi river. Col. Blodgett also made an exhaustive statement regarding the lines of the entire system, their location, condition, etc., and asked the court to instruct Receivers Humphreys and Tull what course to pursue in the future. He also stated that before the court made an order instructing the receivers, the purchasing committee of the Wabash would like to be heard before the court, and for that purpose Gen. Swayne and other attorneys of the committee would be present in court tomorrow. The judge remarked that the order related to a fragment of the Wabash property beginning and ending nowhere.

Judge Brewer asked if any action had been taken looking to joint or single management of the Wabash property on the east side of the river. Col. Blodgett replied that from a conversation he had with Judge Cooley he inferred that the parts of the system covered by Judge Gresham's order would be operated independently. Judge Treat stated that the decree in the Wabash purchase contemplated the payment of all the indebtedness; it was not intended that the claim of the property should be taken and that the purchasers should escape the obligation in respect to all other parts of the property. The Farmers Loan and Trust Co. also asked through counsel to be heard tomorrow concerning the appointment in respect of liability for receivers' certificates. It is understood that the purchasing committee at St. Louis will bring up tomorrow the question of the jurisdiction of Judge Gresham, and in that case the dispute may eventually reach the U. S. supreme court.

A Desperate Pair.

MILES CITY, Mont., Dec. 28.—A horrible tragedy occurred here last night in a house of ill repute. A man by the name of Frank Smith was found with his brother in a room with two women named Clara Chase and Emma Richmond. He drew a pistol and fired point blank at the first named. The ball passed through her arm, entered the body of his brother, killing him instantly. The two girls and Frank Smith were at once placed under arrest, but Emma Richmond committed suicide by taking a dose of laudanum.

CINDERELLA.

Mississippi Steamers Burned.

CAIRO, Ill., Dec. 28.—Fire at 6 o'clock this morning destroyed the Mississippi Valley Transportation steamer R. S. Hays and four barges, and the Anchor Line steamer City of Natchez, which were lying at the bank. The fire is supposed to have originated in the aft cabin of the steamer Hays, soon enveloping the whole boat and burning her to the water's edge. The fire spread to the City of Natchez, lying just below the Hays, and in a few moments she too was a mass of flames. The barges along side the Hays were loaded with cotton, soda ash, and sundries, and also took fire and were completely destroyed. Nothing but the wrecks of the burned hulls remain.

The City of Natchez was built at Jeffersonville three years ago and valued at $100,000. She was one of the finest boats on the Mississippi. The Hays was built by the Valley company about three years ago and was valued at about $50,000. The loss of the Valley company's barges and contents will make the loss reach about $1,000,000. Insurance not known.

A Stock Company Staged.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 28.—A fire occurred this afternoon in the building occupied by the Detroit Alaska Stock Co., on Clinton street, and by hard work it was confined to the building. Several girls in the third story narrowly escaped with their lives. Loss $37,000. Insurance $17,000.

Trial of a Train Wrecker.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 28.—The trial of Geo. Hamilton, one of the Knights of Labor charged with wrecking a Missouri Pacific train and killing two men during the great strike, was adjourned in the district court at Wyandotte, and the selection of a jury completed. About 100 persons were examined before the jury was obtained. The last man of the 12 accepted by both sides is a K. of L., as shown during the examination, and the state's acceptance of him caused some surprise. The prosecuting attorney will make the opening address tomorrow and the state expects to have its evidence all in by Thursday. The trial will probably last a week or ten days.

Collision on the Rails.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—There was an accident on the Manhattan branch of the B. & O. railroad today by which two passenger trains were pretty badly wrecked. The collision was between No. 57 going west from Washington, and the second section of No. 2, coming west from Chicago. The Chicago train was very late and should have taken siding at Rockville, but instead attempted to make the siding at Silver Springs. It was within three miles of the latter when it collided with the Gettysburg train from this city that left at half past four o'clock. The Gettysburg train was also making for a switch when the collision occurred. Each train was about equally distant from their respective depots when the collisions happened. The trains following the accident took the route by way of the Roby House. Conductor Ridenour of the Gettysburg train, was badly injured and a number of passengers were cut and bruised, but none badly hurt.

A Fatal Frolic.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 28.—News reached here Christmas eve, that Kenny's Creek, a mining village on New river, in Fayette county, about a mile below Charleston, was the scene of a terrible dance. Mr. Lovejoy, a miner, gave a dance to which he invited the entire population. The dance was orderly until the fumes of liquor began to influence the brains of the young men present. Two factions were at the dance, who tore each other a feud—Gibbets and Halls. Friends of both parties tried to keep the trouble, which was brewing, under control, but to no use. Finally revels were given up, and shooting began. George Gilbert fell at the first round riddled with bullets. Elijah Gilbert and John Montgomery received mortal wounds, and John Land was badly cut with a razor. Only one of the shooters was captured, Mike Donohoe, who was taken before a justice. During the trial Donohoe jumped through a window and escaped.

Employees Claim The Victory.

READING, Pa., Dec. 28.—In consequence of the settlement of the trouble between the Philadelphia and Reading railroad officials and their employees, more than 400 coal cars which had been stopped were moved this evening. All the crews who struck or were idle in consequence of the strike, have been notified to report for duty at once. The employees consider the settlement a big victory for them.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 28.—The bodies of two firemen, Jas. Johnson and John Gibson, crushed by a falling wall during the Temple theatre fire yesterday, were recovered this morning. Their faces were but little disfigured. Both bodies had been scalded by steam.
